RALPH C. WILSON, JR.
President and Owner

Ralph Wilson marks his Silver Anniversary in professional football this fall.

The only owner of the Buffalo Bills since they joined the American Football League as a charter member in 1960, Wilson has watched them grow from a struggling infant into the full flower of manhood.

He has tasted the sweet success of two American Football League championships (1964-65) and endured the frustration of the 1968 and 1971 seasons, when the Bills won only one game in each.

He watched one of his players, O.J. Simpson, become the dominant offensive player of the 1970's and saw another, quarterback Jack Kemp, win a landslide election to the U.S. House of Representatives.

For Ralph Wilson, football has been important since he was a young man, accompanying his father to University of Detroit and Detroit Lion games. "I was an avid fan in the early part of my teens," Wilson recalls. "I could see the interest developing in professional football in the days of Leon Hart, Bobby Layne and Doak Walker. We could see how popular the sport was becoming."

Wilson's enthusiasm for professional football led him to first purchase a minority share in the NFL Detroit Lions and later to join ranks with Lamar Hunt and the other members of "The Foolish Club" in an ambitious, but risky, venture known as the American Football League.

In the beginning there were indignities, like dressing in the boiler room below a high school gym because the principal didn't want "pros" using the locker room, but "The Foolish Club" persevered and finally merged with the older National Football League.

Looking back on the formative days of the AFL, Wilson says he "never thought about throwing in the towel, never considered selling the team. Of course, in the first three years we lost money. There were times when I reminded myself I used to pay five dollars for a ticket to the Lions' games and I enjoyed myself and had no headaches. I would ask myself what I was doing here."

It was Wilson and the late Carroll Rosenbloom, then owner of the Baltimore Colts, who had the first tentative talks in January, 1965, that eventually led to the AFL-NFL merger. A past president of the AFL, Wilson served as a member of the expansion committee and the AFL-NFL Negotiations Committee.

He was also prominent in the negotiations which resulted in a 1977 agreement between the NFL Management Council and the NFL Players Association. Just this year, Wilson was named to a two-year term on the Board of Directors of NFL Charities. He joins AFC President Lamar Hunt, NFC President Wellington Mara, NFL Commissioner Pete Rozelle, Congressman Jack Kemp, Lowell Perry and David Mahoney on the distinguished panel. Since its inception in 1973, NFL Charities has made grant commitments totaling more than $5 million.

A native of Detroit since moving there with his family as a youngster, Wilson earned his undergraduate degree from the University of Virginia and later attended the University of Michigan Law School. He enlisted in the Navy during World War II, earning his commission within a year and serving aboard mine-sweepers in both the Atlantic and Pacific theatres.

Among many business pursuits, Wilson is president of the Ralph C. Wilson Insurance Agency. Other enterprises under the "Wilson Industries" banner include two television stations, an oil drilling company, a construction firm, tool and die manufacturing companies and a number of other businesses.

Wilson's interest in sports extends beyond football. He owns a stable of thoroughbred race horses and is an avid tennis player, skier and golfer.

From the inception of the Bills, Wilson has played a dynamic and active role in the organization. He is determined in his effort to bring two things—"winning football and a Super Bowl trophy"—to the NFL faithful of Western New York.

The weekly publication, Football News, recognized Wilson's contribution to the game in 1973 when it named him NFL "Man-of-the-Year." "He has been a tower of strength in the administration of professional football," the newspaper said.

FRONT OFFICE STAFF

PATRICK J. McGRODER, Jr. Sr. Executive Vice President

Since the foundation of the Buffalo franchise in 1960, Pat McGroder has been a vital part of the Bills' operation. Ralph Wilson, his friend for 25 years, admits he's never met "a more dynamic personality or a more knowledgeable businessman."

Just a year ago, McGroder stepped in on an interim basis to handle the delicate matter of player negotiations and did an outstanding job in what can be one of the most complex and sensitive assignments in all of professional sports.

"Pat has done a wonderful job for the franchise," Wilson said. "He is going to remain with us as Senior Executive Vice President."

McGroder is coordinating many of the Bills' Silver Anniversary plans in addition to supervising the club's activity in the marketing and promotion areas. He also conducts the advertising sales and handles a variety of other activities at the executive level.

A native of Buffalo, McGroder nearly landed an NFL franchise for the city during the late 1950's when he promoted a series of professional football games at War Memorial Stadium. Pittsburgh Steelers chairman of the board Art Rooney has been a friend of McGroder for more than 30 years. Rooney was impressed by Pat's love of his hometown:

"I've never met a man who cared more for his city and the people in his city than Pat McGroder...I don't believe anybody could think more of his city than Pat thinks of Buffalo."

In addition to Rooney, McGroder had a long-standing friendship with the late George Halas, president of the Chicago Bears and one of the founding fathers of the NFL.

When pro football came to Buffalo in 1960, it was the American Football League, not the NFL, that set up shop in War Memorial Stadium. The chairman of the city's Board of Stadium and Memorial Auditorium, McGroder reached agreement with Ralph Wilson on a lease for the fledgling pro football team and a new friendship was formed that endures to the present day.

An All-High guard and tackle for St. Joseph's Collegiate Institute, McGroder played for the University of Chattanooga. The son of a West Side grocer, he got into the liquor retailing business as a salesman for W.A. Taylor Importers, rising to National Sales Representative. He left Taylor to form his own firm, McKinley Liquor Company.

In addition to the stadium post he held at the time he met Ralph Wilson, McGroder also served the city as Parks Commissioner and Coordinator of Planning and Development. He was the winner of the Chamber of Commerce's "Good Government" award in 1958.

A past president of the Police Athletic League, McGroder was the Buffalo Athletic Club's choice as "Sportsman of the Year" in 1955.

At Wilson's insistence, McGroder joined the Bills' front office staff soon after the team's formation and he has remained involved in the club for each of its 24 years in Buffalo.

PERSONAL INFORMATION: Attended St. Joseph's Collegiate Institute and Hutchinson High School, Canisius and Chattanooga Colleges...Excellent golfer...He and wife, Loretta, have two daughters, Carol and Kathleen, and a son, Patrick III...Son-in-law is John MacLeod, coach of the NBA Phoenix Suns...Lives in Buffalo.

TERRY BLEDSOE

General Manager and Vice President-Administration

Former New York Giants executive Terry Bledsoe, whose background includes such diverse subjects as sportswriting, labor-management negotiations and player contract bargaining, was appointed to the post of General Manager and Vice President-Administration on December 10, 1983.

Bledsoe, 49, has responsibility for the business operations of the team, handles player negotiations and serves with Owner Ralph C. Wilson as the Bills' representatives at National Football League meetings.

Assistant General Manager of the Giants for five and a half years (1978-83), Bledsoe first became acquainted with Wilson when he was working with the NFL Management Council and Wilson was a member of the League's labor committee. Bledsoe joined the Management Council in 1973 and, as assistant executive director, was one of the four negotiators who represented the clubs in talks leading to the landmark 1977 Collective Bargaining Agreement.

In 1982, Bledsoe was a member of Jack Donlan's negotiating team in bargaining toward a succeeding agreement.

"The vital part of a relationship, more specifically a negotiation, is to allow both sides to enter and leave it with dignity," Bledsoe said at the time of his appointment. "It is desperately important that the players and employees of an organization feel they're being treated fairly."

While born in Chicago, Bledsoe was raised in Clinton, Iowa, after his father was fatally wounded at the Battle of the Bulge.

He originally enrolled at St. Ambrose College in Davenport, Iowa, and transferred to the University of Iowa where he earned his degree in journalism in 1956.

Bledsoe was a sportswriter and columnist for the Milwaukee Journal for 11 years, covering the Green Bay Packers from 1962-73 and Marquette University from 1962-68. He wrote a sports column from 1966-73 and was chosen Wisconsin "Sportswriter of the Year" in four straight years, until he entered professional football in 1973.

Bledsoe and his wife, Shirley, have six children—Anne, Chris, Tom, Katie, Carolyn and Ellie.

PERSONAL INFORMATION: Born August 4, 1934, in Chicago, Ill...Attended St. Mary's High School in Clinton, Iowa, and the University of Iowa... Married, he and wife, Shirley, have six children... Lives in Orchard Park.

NORM POLLOM

Vice President—Player Personnel

One of the most astute judges of football talent in the business, Norm Pollom was promoted to Vice President—Player Personnel in March, 1983, after serving for the previous five years as director of the Bills' college scouting department. In his new capacity, Pollom will be responsible for the acquisition of talent, assist with player negotiations and continue to coordinate the team's college and pro scouting departments. Pollom joined the Buffalo organization in 1978. The native of Chehalis, Wash., was a scouting and personnel specialist with the Los Angeles Rams for 16 years and worked one year with the Tampa Bay Bucs. Pollom graduated from Puget Sound, where he played offensive and defensive end, in 1950. He coached seven years in Pacific Northwest high schools, putting together a scholastic won-lost record of 54-16-2. Named to Jim Owens' Washington staff in 1957, Pollom was with the Huskies for three seasons and had a hand in the 44-8 victory over Wisconsin in the 1960 Rose Bowl game. He left in 1960 to take a position on John McKay's Southern California staff. From SC, Pollom went into the educational field, serving four years as assistant principal of Palo Verdes, Calif., Unified High Schools. He started working for the Rams as a part-time scout while a school administrator and joined the Los Angeles organization fulltime in 1965. When he left the Rams in 1976, Pollom was Director of Player Personnel.

KAY STEPHENSON

Vice President Football Operations and Head Coach

In a game that puts a high premium on experience and sophistication, Kay Stephenson proved that youth is no liability.

Last fall, as the youngest head coach in the National Football League at age 39, Stephenson brought the Bills to within a breath of a winning season and kept their playoff hopes glimmering until the final Sunday of the regular season. Of the coaches in their first NFL season, only one, John Robinson of the Rams who finished 9-7, posted a record superior to Stephenson's "rookie" mark of 8-8 in Buffalo.

Stephenson kept the Bills in the chase despite what many considered the worst run of injuries in the history of the franchise. Twenty-two players, ten of them starters, missed at least one game.

Kay Stephenson did an exceptional job in his rookie year," BUFFALO NEWS Sports Editor Larry Felser wrote. "Buffalo lost more players per game than any team in the NFL in 1983. The team with the next most grievous casualty list was 32 missed games less than the Bills."

Another veteran professional football observer, columnist Len Shapiro of the WASHINGTON POST and PRO FOOTBALL WEEKLY, recognized Stephenson's achievements by hailing him as the NFL's "best first-year coach."

Following the campaign, Stephenson and his Buffalo staff were selected to coach the North team in the annual Senior Bowl Classic at Mobile, Ala. It was the first visit to Mobile for a Buffalo coaching staff since 1972.

Stephenson prefers to pass around any praise for the Bills' courageous efforts of a year ago. "We got an exceptional effort from our players," he says. "When someone went down with an injury, every man on the team seemed to accelerate his performance. We never got down on ourselves and, for all of the problems we encountered, never believed our situation was anything but positive."

While Stephenson's maturity, boldness and judgment were unveiled for the first time to many, such qualities came as no surprise to friends like Bill Carr and Bum Phillips and to Ralph Wilson, president of the Bills.

"Anyone who saw him under fire would see that he has a great capacity to perform under stress," Carr, a Pensacola HS teammate who is now athletic director at the University of Florida, said, "...You could see that resilience in him. Some of his better qualities were displayed under stressful situations."

Phillips, whose friendship with Stephenson dates from the early 1960's in San Diego, says Stephenson "is a level guy, and those are the kind of guys I like—guys who aren't going to be up one minute and down the next. He's one of the more stable young people I've ever seen."

At the February 1, 1983 press conference called to announce Stephenson's appointment as the successor to Chuck Knox, Wilson said "a young person like Kay should be given the chance and I know he'll do an outstanding job for us."

No newcomer to Western New York, Stephenson was Buffalo's regular quarterback for three games in 1968, taking the starting job vs. Houston and calling the signals until he suffered a fractured collarbone against Miami on November 10, 1968. He completed 19 of 79 passes for 364 yards and four touchdowns.

Stephenson is the first former Buffalo player to serve as the Bills' head coach and the second youngest man ever to hold the position (Joe Collier was the youngest.)

A native of Pensacola, Fla., Stephenson was a prep All-State quarterback in high school who elected to enroll at the University of Florida which also recruited a promising youngster named Steve Spurrier. "He always had a great understanding of football," says Ray Graves, Florida coach at the time. "You know, sometimes the guys on the sidelines, not in the game, can learn those fine points that turn you to coaching. He was a smart quarterback in college. He simply came along at the wrong time."

Following his graduation, Stephenson earned a free agent contract with the San Diego Chargers where he spent one season before being traded to Buffalo in 1968. Injured again in 1969, he had brief stints with Oakland and Atlanta before retiring in 1970.

He broke into coaching as a college assistant at Rice University in 1971. Out of football in 1972, Kay returned as athletic director and head coach at Baker, Fla., High School in 1973. He played one year with the WFL Jacksonville Sharks in 1974 and, a year later, served in the dual capacity of offensive coordinator and director of player personnel for the Jacksonville franchise.

After a year away from the game in 1976, Stephenson was tapped for Knox's Los Angeles staff in 1977 and worked with Ram quarterbacks Pat Haden and Joe Namath during LA's Western Division championship season. He followed Knox from LA to Buffalo in 1978.

As the Bills' quarterback coach, he had a hand in assembling the most productive offense in the history of the franchise, which took Buffalo to a second straight playoff appearance in 1981 by accumulating 5,640 yards in 16 games.

Stephenson feels fortunate to have been associated with outstanding football coaches throughout his grid lifetime:

"It started at Pensacola High and at the University of Florida. I had great coaches at both places, including assistant coaches, and both programs were outstanding. I didn't play much at Florida, but I was there when the Gators were as good as they've ever been. Then I was under Sid Gillman as a player with the Chargers and he was instrumental in a lot of offensive things I picked up."

"Charlie Tate, coach of the Jacksonville team in the WFL, was one of the soundest football people I've ever been around. And, Chuck Knox was very special. He gave me coaching jobs with the Rams and here in Buffalo and there was so much I learned from him."

PERSONAL INFORMATION: Born December 17, 1944, at DeFuniak Springs, Fla...Attended Pensacola High School and the University of Florida...College degree is in Physical Education...Enjoys fishing as a hobby...Wife's name is Mary Jac...Has a daughter, Sheryl, 21...Lives in Orchard Park.

Darryl Caldwell

80JERRY BUTLER*Wide Receiver, Clemson, Draft (#1B-1979)*6-0, 178, Born 10-12-57, 6th Year

Was on his way to one of his best seasons as a pro when struck down by a left knee injury in late October against the New Orleans Saints (10/30) which required surgery...Has undergone an extensive rehabilitation since the surgery but his status for 1984 remains uncertain...Suffered the injury when he caught his toe on the turf at Rich Stadium against the Saints...Was having one of his most productive seasons up until that point...Still finished tied for second on the club with 36 catches despite missing the final seven games...Those three dozen catches accounted for 385 yards and three scores...Had two of his finest days in 1983 against the Dolphins...In the season opener he caught seven passes for 99 yards and then came back five weeks later with nine catches for 89 yards in Buffalo's 38-35 OT win at the Orange Bowl...His TD grabs were against Cincinnati, Houston and the Saints...Missed the preseason with a left hamstring pull which he hurt the first week of camp...His nine catches against Miami were just one shy of his career high against the Jets in 1979...Has battled injury problems the last two seasons...His 1982 season was shortened to seven games with a nagging muscle pull in his left leg...Still caught 26 passes in the strike-shortened campaign for 336 yards and four TD's...Ranks fourth on the Bills' all-time receiving with 222 catches...Is an outstanding deep threat with great speed and quickness...A dangerous one-on-one receiver...Has seven games of over 100 yards in his career with a record 255-yard effort (10 catches) against the Jets (9/23/79) in a game he scored four times...Last went over 100 yards vs. Minnesota in 1982 which included an 11-yard TD catch with just over two minutes to go...Has caught at least one pass in 62 of the 64 games he has played for the Bills including playoffs...His 255-yard effort against the Jets in 1979 was a record for an NFL rookie and it was the most for an NFL receiver since 1962...It was also the seventh best one day total in NFL history...Is one of only four Buffalo players to score four times in one game (Cookie Gilchrist, O.J. Simpson and Roland Hooks the others)...Missed three games as a rookie with a shoulder injury but still caught 48 passes for 834 yards and won AFC Rookie-of-the-Year honors...Played in the 1981 Pro Bowl in Honolulu...Buffalo's second of two first round draft picks in 1979, he was the fifth player chosen overall.

COLLEGE/PERSONAL: Was the premier college receiver in 1978 when he was a first team All-America for coach Charley Pell at Clemson...Established school records in several categories many of which were broken by Buffalo teammate Perry Tuttle...Had 139 career receptions for 2,223 yards (16.0 avg.) and 11 TD's...His 58 receptions as a senior is still a Tiger record as are his 163 yards in one game against Georgia Tech as a junior...Was the Atlantic Coast Conference pass reception leader in 1977 and the conference leader in yards and catches in 1978...Ranks second to Perry Tuttle on the all-time Clemson receiving lists...Played for coaches Red Parker and Charley Pell and played in the Gator Bowl in both 1977 and 1978...Participated in the East-West Shrine game and the Senior Bowl following his senior year...Has blazing speed as evidenced by his victory in the 1978 ACC 60-yard dash...Defeated world record-holder Harvey Glance in qualifying race at 1977 NCAA indoor championships in Detroit...Caught passes in 35 consecutive games at Clemson...Born in Greenwood, S.C., his family now resides in Ware Shoals, S.C., ...Spent most of his offseason in Buffalo where he owns a restaurant called Butler's Big Play...Has a B.A. from Clemson in recreation and parks administration...Full name is Jerry O'Dell Butler...Was a quarterback at Ware Shoals High School before going to Clemson on a track scholarship...One of five children...Was the Buffalo Bills' "Man-of-the-Year" in both 1981-82 which recognizes community service...Active with ex-Bill J.D. Hill in a football league for inner-city youngsters...Was one of five finalists in the 1981 NFL Man-of-the-Year competition for players from throughout the League...Likes fishing, hiking and camping...Did not start playing football in high school until his sophomore season, spending his frosh year in the band as a saxophone player...Was honored in 1983 by the Buffalo and Erie County YMCA with the Jackie Robinson Award for community service.

67DARRYL CALDWELL*Tackle, Tennessee St., Free Agent (6-3-83)*6-5, 255, Born 2-2-60, 2nd Year

One of the pleasant surprises for the Bills in 1983...Earned a spot on the club with a fine training camp and preseason...A versatile line-man capable of playing either tackle or guard...He also played some at tight end in the season finale against Atlanta when injuries sidelined the club's top two tight ends...Had one of the year's big plays when he recovered an onside kick against the Raiders which helped the Bills tie the score at 24-24 after trailing, 24-3...The club lost in the final seconds, 27-24...Suffered a neck injury against the Rams (11/27) and did not play against Kansas City and San Francisco the following two weeks...Saw most of his playing time almost exclusively on the special teams.

COLLEGE/PERSONAL: Started for two seasons at Tennessee State University for coach John Merritt...Played defensive end as a junior and offensive tackle as a senior...Was a member of two TSU clubs that participated in the NCAA Division I-AA playoffs...Also spent two seasons at the University of Tennessee-Chattanooga where he was a teammate of punter Greg Cater...Is a graduate of C.W. Hayes High School in Birmingham, Alabama...An All-State pick there in high school...Majored in physical education at TSU...Born in Birmingham and lived there during the offseason...Full name is Darryl Dwayne Caldwell.

Games Played (Starts): 14 (0).

7GREG CATER*Punter, Tenn.-Chattanooga, Draft (#10-1980)*6-0, 191, Born 4-17-57, 5th Year

Matched his previous career high average with a 39.7 mark last fall for the Bills...His 89 kicks were the most in his NFL career and were the third most in Buffalo history...The 39.7 average tied him for 11th on the AFC punting charts...He also placed 24 of his kicks inside the 20-yard line and finished the year with a net average of 33.6 which was down a bit from his 36.5 net average of 1982...Had one of his best days at Baltimore last fall when he averaged 45.3 yards on four punts...He also averaged 45.0 on seven kicks at New England...His long boot was a 60-yarder in the season opener vs. Miami...Had perhaps his finest year as a pro in 1982 when he had the fifth best net average in the NFL (36.5)...His punting was responsible for the Bills surrendering the fewest yards-per-return (3.0) in the league that season...Bills' opponents had just 10 returns that year...The longest punt of his NFL career came in his second year when he hit one for 71 yards against Denver at Rich Stadium...That afternoon he turned in a solid effort in the Bills' 9-7 win...He punted nine times for an average of 46.9 and two of his kicks were placed out-of-bounds inside the 20-yard line...Averaged 47.6 vs. the Jets and 47.7 against Baltimore in the first two games of 1981...That same season, he averaged 43.0 in the playoffs...Originally a three-step kicker, he went to a two-step approach after his rookie season...Has averaged 38.5 at home in his career and 40.1 on the road during his career with Buffalo...“When we look at the opponents' films at special teams meetings, I watch the return men. The thing I look for are their speed and tendencies. I also look at their averages. If I see a guy coming in with a 12-yard average, I want to shut him down. If I can average 40 yards and net out at 37 or 38, I'm doing my job and I'm helping out the defense and offense.”...His long kick as a rookie was 61 yards against Pittsburgh...Posted a 44.5 average in the '80 playoff game with San Diego...Chosen by the Bills in the tenth round of the '80 draft, he was the 259th player selected.

COLLEGE/PERSONAL: Was a record breaking punter at the University of Tennessee-Chattanooga where he set records for most career punts (266), best career average (42.7) and most punts in one season (78)...Also holds school records for most yards in a game, season and career...The long punt of his career was 71 yards against Illinois State...A first team All-Southern Conference selection three years in succession for the Mocs...Played for former New York Giant standout Joe Morrison at UTC...Had just one punt returned for a TD in four years and was the team MVP as a freshman...The Southern Conference's leading punter for three seasons and was a member of three league championship clubs...UTC was 31-10-3 during his career...Once averaged 50.0 in one game against Jacksonville (Ala.) State...Born in LaGrange, Georgia, he attended LaGrange High School where he lettered in football, basketball and baseball...Enjoys fishing and golf...Has been involved in golf cart sales in his spare time in Western New York...Spent the offseason in Etowah, Tennessee with his wife, Robin...A business education major in college...Full name is Gregory Wayne Cater.

JOE DEVLIN

70 Offensive Tackle, Iowa, Draft (#2B-1976)
6-5, 250, Born 2-23-54, 8th Year

Missed all of the 1983 season after suffering a fractured right ankle against Detroit in the club's third preseason game...However, he should be back at 100 percent following surgery and rehabilitation...Prior to his injury, he had been a stalwart on the Buffalo offensive line for six straight years after earning a starting position in his second season (1977)... Named last spring to the Bills' Silver Anniversary All-Time Team...Since coming to Buffalo in the 1976 draft, he has started 87 of 99 games...Played behind Donnie Green at right tackle as a rookie before earning the starting spot the following season...The only other time he has been out of the Bills' lineup was in 1978 when he missed the team's final two games with a knee injury...One of his trademarks has been his consistency...Is a fine pass blocker and his presence in the Buffalo lineup has been a big reason the Bills have been among the league leaders in fewest sacks allowed...Credits some of his success to playing with former Bill Joe DeLamielleure early in his career...He was the 52nd player picked in the 1976 NFL draft and was the second of two choices exercised by the Bills in Round Two...Buffalo selected Ken Jones as the other second round pick that year...The Bills acquired the second choice they used to select Devlin from the St. Louis Cardinals in exchange for defensive end Walt Patulski.

COLLEGE/PERSONAL: A collegiate standout at the University of Iowa where he was a three-year starter for the Hawkeyes...Played both guard and tackle under coaches Frank Lauterbur and Bob Comings...Won first team All-America honors as a senior and also was a first team All-Big Ten choice...Invited to the Blue-Gray game following his senior year...Born in Phoenixville, Pa., he now resides in Eden, N.Y. with his wife, Sarah, and son, Troy...Attended Great Valley High School in Frazer Pa....Majored in liberal arts at Iowa with an emphasis on general studies...Enjoys hunting and fishing in his free time...Also did some boxing in both college and high school...Has played with the Bills' basketball team in the past...Was the honorary chairman of WNY "Save Your Sight Week" and for the WNY Chapter of the Leukemia Society of America in 1981.

12 JOE FERGUSON Quarterback, Arkansas, Draft (#3-1973) 6-1, 195, Born 4-23-50, 12th Year

Joined an elite club last season when he went over the 25,000 yard mark in career passing...He is just one of 20 passers in NFL history to attain that feat...Going into the 1984 season, he has thrown for 25,599 yards which ranked him 19th on the all-time list...In addition, his 1,997 completions ranked 16th and his 3,882 attempts ranked 14th on the all-time charts...His 169 career TD's rank just below the Top 20, too...Is the senior member of the Buffalo Bills in both games played and years with the team...Has played in 156 games and is currently in his 12th consecutive season with the AFC club, both team marks going into the 1984 campaign...Turned in some good numbers in 1983 despite a rash of injuries to the Bills' receiving corps which caused problems all season...Set a new club record for touchdown passes in one season with 26 (tied for AFC lead) and also set new standards for attempts and completions for both a game and season...Also set a single game record when he passed for 419 yards against Miami on a 38 of 55 performance with a record-tying five TD passes...Holds virtually every Bills' passing record and became the first Buffalo quarterback to pass for over 400 yards in one game when he accomplished the feat against Miami (10/9/83)...His effort helped the Bills post a 38-35 OT win...Overall for 1983, he completed 281 of 508 passes for 2,995 yards with 26 touchdowns and 25 interceptions...Played some of his best football early in the year when the Bills' receiving corps was virtually healthy...In three games against Cincinnati, Baltimore and Houston, he completed 50 of 82 passes for 491 yards and six TD's...Hit 74 straight passes during that span without an interception...Had two exceptional games against Baltimore, completing 39 of 57 (68.4%) with six touchdowns and no interceptions...Had four touchdown passes against New Orleans (10/30)...Missed parts of three games last season with injuries...Suffered a concussion in Buffalo's 34-10 Monday night loss to the Jets at Rich Stadium (10/3) and also another against the Raiders (11/20) which caused him to miss over half the game...Also suffered a minor elbow injury at Shea Stadium against the Jets (11/13) but came back to rally the Bills to a 24-17 win with a late TD toss to Joe Cribbs...One of the league's most explosive passers when he is hot...Has a streak of 103 consecutive starts at quarterback, tying him with Philadelphia's Ron Jaworski for the most straight starting appearances by an NFL quarterback...Has thrown 20 or more touchdown passes in three of the last four seasons...Was off to one of his best starts ever as a professional in 1982 when the strike intervened...Prior to the strike, he had completed 43 of 76 passes for 496 yards and five touchdowns...Had his problems after, however, tossing just two touchdowns and 15 interceptions...Turned in a strong 1981 season, passing for 3,652 yards and 24 TD's and helping the Bills into the second round of the AFC playoffs...Has thrown for over 300 yards nine times in his career with his career best coming against Miami last fall...Is sixth among active NFL quarterbacks in yards passing and completions and fifth in attempts...Has guided Buffalo into the playoffs three times in his career, twice as a "wild card" (1974, 1981) and once as the AFC East champion (1980)...Has thrown for 814 yards and six touchdowns in playoff games...Helped Buffalo post its first post-season win since 1965 in 1981 when he tossed for 268 yards (17 of 34) and two TD's in Buffalo's 31-27 win over the Jets in Shea in the AFC "wild card" game...Gave a courageous performance in the 1980 playoffs at San Diego, when, despite a badly sprained ankle that rendered him virtually helpless, had Buffalo on top 14-13 before a San Diego rally in the final two minutes pulled out the win...Only Buffalo quarterback to pass for more than 300 yards four times in one season and to exceed 3,000 yards passing in a season

(1979, 1981)...Has twice passed for five touchdowns in a game against the New York Jets (9/23/79) and Miami (10/9/83)... Once hit on 15 of 18 passes for a club record 83.3 percent against Kansas City on 10/1/78...Established two NFL marks in 1976, the season cut short by seven games due to injury, when he threw just one interception in 151 attempts, the fewest interceptions by a quarterback in a season and the lowest interception rate (0.66)...Threw scoring passes in 12 consecutive games in 1975, another club mark ...Longest completion of his career was a 92-yard TD to Frank Lewis vs. Miami on 9/17/78...Picked by the Bills in the third round of the 1973 NFL draft, he was the 57th player chosen.

COLLEGE/PERSONAL: Was a collegiate standout at the University of Arkansas where he played for coach Frank Broyles...Won All-Southwest Conference honors and that league's MVP as a junior... Set numerous school records and played in both the Hula Bowl and the North-South Shrine game...Also named to the College All-Star squad which used to play the NFL champion in a preseason game... His top game as a collegian came in his junior year when he completed 31 of 51 passes for 345 yards against Texas A&M...Member of Arkansas' Liberty Bowl team that season...Has a B.S. in physical education...Attended Woodlawn High School in Shreveport as did Pittsburgh's Terry Bradshaw...Coached there by A.L. Williams, now the head coach at Louisiana Tech...Was Buffalo's representative for the 1980 United Way television spots...Has done a number of other television and radio spots on behalf of charitable organizations including Roswell Park Memorial Hospital in Buffalo, known worldwide for its research in the field of cancer and for treatment of cancer patients...Has a pilot's license and once owned a single engine Cessna...Has worked with the quarterbacks at Northwestern (La.) State University...An avid hunter and fisherman...Is also a fine golfer and teamed with the Montreal Expos' Gary Carter to finish 11th in the American Airlines Classic in Hawaii in 1983...A native of Alvin, Texas, Joe and his wife, Sandi, now reside in Shreveport with their daughter, Kristen...Full name is Joseph Carlton Ferguson, Jr.

WILL GRANT

53 Center, Kentucky, Draft (#10-1978)
6-3, 255, Born 3-7-54, 7th Year

Handled the starting center chores once again for the Bills in 1983...Has been the starter at that spot since earning the berth in the 1980 season opener...Ran his string of consecutive starts to 57 last year tops for all the offensive lineman...Gives the club experience and stability in the middle...Spent his first two years in a reserve capacity and as a special teams' performer before moving in as a starter in his third season...One of the reasons the Bills have been among the league leaders in fewest sacks allowed in the last four years...The Bills led the NFL in that category in both 1980 and 1981...“The only time anybody notices the center,” Grant says, “is when we make a mistake”...Since Buffalo adopted the shotgun in 1980, he has not had a bad snap...Played under Bills' offensive line coach Jim Niblack at Kentucky...Has also done some snapping for the special teams during his career...“I guess I make about 15 snaps a game from the shotgun,” Grant offers. “But there's no more pressure than when the quarterback is underneath. You work at it so much it becomes habit."...He was the 255th player taken in the 1978 draft when the Bills chose him in Round 10...Has been one of three former Kentucky centers starting in the NFL in recent years...The others have been Jeff Van Note of Atlanta and Dan Neal of Chicago.

COLLEGE/PERSONAL: Played his final two years at the University of Kentucky after playing two seasons at Idaho State University... Coached by Fran Curci at UK and played in the 1976 Peach Bowl for the Wildcats...Started just six games in his entire career at Kentucky and earned the starting berth as a senior when the team's regular center suffered an injury...However, his play in that span was so impressive that he earned an invitation to the Blue-Gary game...College major was arts and sciences...Born in Milton, Massachusetts... Attended high school at Thayer Academy in Braintree, Mass., and also spent one year at Milford Academy in Connecticut...Enjoys playing racquetball and is still active in hockey in the offseason...Once hoped to be a professional hockey player after a fine prep career...Toured Europe with a Boston-area all-star squad while in high school and played in an International Junior Tournament in Cortina, Italy...One of his brothers played hockey at Dartmouth and in the N.Y. Rangers' Farm System...Lived in Boston, New York in the offseason.

ROLAND HOOKS

25 Running Back, No. Carolina St., Dr. (#10-75)
6-0, 195, Born 1-25-53, 8th Year

Missed the entire 1983 season after suffering an injury to his left knee on August 6th of last year in the club's first preseason game against the Bears...The significance of the August 6th date was that it was the second year in succession he had suffered an injury on that day...A year earlier, he fractured an elbow in training camp which caused him to miss much of the early portion of the 1982 season...Should be at 100 percent for the 1984 season and will be counted on by the Bills as both a runner and receiver...One of the most versatile and valuable members of the club...Has carried the ball just five times for 23 yards since the 1981 season...His play was limited to six games during the strike-shortened 1982 season...However, he has a fine 4.2 career average which ranks among the best ever on the Bills...Can also be called upon to return punts and kickoffs which he has done throughout his career when needed...One of the top receivers among the club's running backs...Has proved to be an enormous bargain for the Bills after being the 253rd player selected in the 1975 college draft...In terms of seniority with the Bills, he ranks second to Joe Ferguson...Has started just 10 games in his 98-game pro career but he has been productive when called upon...Had a 100-yard rushing and a 100-yard receiving day when he was pressed into service for Joe Cribbs in 1981...Caught six passes for 111 yards and two TD's, including the deflected end zone reception that won the game with five seconds left, against New England (11/22/81)...While starting for Cribbs against Washington, he racked up 109 yards on 19 carries and scored two more TD's to help Buffalo defeat the Redskins (11/29/81)...Best single game rushing effort came in 1977 when he picked up 155 yards on 27 carries vs. New England when he filled in for an injured O.J. Simpson...Has had three 100-yard games since joining the Bills...Ranks in the top 10 on the all-time Bills' rushing chart...Shares the Buffalo record for touchdowns in a single game with four, all against Cincinnati on Sept. 9, 1979, when he carried four times in the second half and scored on runs of 3, 32, 4 and 28 yards...Pressed into action in the divisional playoff game against Cincinnati in 1981, he rushed for 30 yards on nine carries and caught two passes for 15 yards...Had his best season in 1977 when he rushed for 499 yards on 128 carries which was second to Simpson...Missed his entire rookie season (1975) because of injuries and illness.

COLLEGE/PERSONAL: Had a fine career at North Carolina State University where he won three letters and set a school record for best career rushing average (5.6)...Ran for 850 yards as a senior and scored 82 points as the Wolfpack earned a berth in the Astro-Bluebonnet Bowl...Coached by Lou Holtz and also a member of N.C. State clubs that played in the Liberty and Peach Bowls...The team had a 26-8-2 record in his three seasons...Returned a kickoff 80 yards for a TD in his first college game...A native of Brooklyn, he attended Farm Life High School in Vanceboro, N.C...Was a history major at N.C. State and has done some work towards an MBA...A good handball and basketball player, he also enjoys golf and shoots in the 80's ...Lived in Westminster, Colorado in the offseason with his wife, Earlene.

MIKE KENNEDY

21 Strong Safety, Toledo, Free Agent (9-28-83)
6-0, 195, Born 2-26-59, 2nd Year

Took a circuitous route to a starting berth with the Bills in 1983... Originally signed as a free agent in May, 1983, he was waived by the club on the final cutdown to 49 players before being resigned nearly a month later when injuries struck the secondary...Had just enrolled for the new term at the University of Toledo...Played in five games primarily with the special teams before injuries forced some additional moves in the secondary and he ended up starting the final seven games of the season at strong safety...His most memorable play of the year came in Game 14 when he intercepted a Bill Kenney pass and returned it 22 yards for a score in the Bills' 14-9 win over the Kansas City Chiefs...Had a hand in 59 tackles and also had a fumble recovery (vs. San Francisco)...One of the top hitters on the Bills' special teams throughout the preseason and his play on those units helped him earn a berth on the club...Just missed making the Atlanta Falcons in 1982 as a free agent...Was active with the Falcons throughout the preseason before being waived just before the start of the year...Makes up for his lack of great speed with aggressiveness...Says Kennedy, "I'm not that fast, so I've got to make things happen. And if you're aggressive, you're going to make things happen. You're going to get turnovers, get loose footballs."

COLLEGE/PERSONAL: Won four letters at the University of Toledo where he played for coach Chuck Stobart...Was a second team All-America as a senior when he helped the Rockets to a 9-3 season and a win over San Jose State in the California Bowl...Twice chosen All-Mid-American Conference...Had over 300 career tackles...Missed one season (1980) with a broken arm...Had 11 career interceptions, four blocked punts, five fumble recoveries and 32 tackles for losses totalling 149 yards...Twice UT's Outstanding Player...One of his brothers played at Bowling Green State University...Is a graduate of St. Francis DeSales High School in Toledo...Majored in marketing at Toledo...Full name is Michael Scott Kennedy...A native of Toledo, he lived there during the offseason.

ROD KUSH

42 Free Safety, Nebr.-Omaha, Dr. (#5A-1979)
6-0, 188, Born 12-29-56, 5th Year

Suffered through a very frustrating 1983 campaign...Penciled in as a starter at free safety going into 1983, he started the first three games there before suffering a knee injury in game three against Baltimore ...Minor surgery caused him to miss subsequent starts against Houston and the Jets before he returned as a starter against Miami in the Orange Bowl...However, his bad luck continued and he reinjured his left knee, which signalled the end of his 1983 season... Placed on injured reserve 10/12/83...Is expected to be back at 100 percent for 1984 and will once again challenge for a starting berth at either strong or free safety...Had a hand in 26 tackles in his limited playing time last year...One of his key stops was a goal-line assist vs. Cincinnati...Prior to earning a starting berth last season, he had been a key reserve and one of the team's top special teams performers...Was a backup to Steve Freeman in his first four seasons in the league and many time worked as a nickel back...One of the big hitters in the secondary...His finest year with the Bills came in 1981 when he had 37 tackles, 5½ quarterback sacks and three fumble recoveries...Had 2½ sacks that year in Buffalo's 9-7 win over Denver at Rich Stadium...Also had a pass interception and a 19-yard return against Miami in the Bills' Monday Night victory...Missed the entire 1979 season when he suffered a fractured foot in a pickup basketball game prior to the start of training camp...Played with the special teams for the first four games of the 1980 season before moving in as a starter against San Diego (10/5) when Jeff Nixon went down with an injury...Blocked a punt in that game to help produce one TD and sacked the punter on another to set up a second in Buffalo's 26-24 win...Suffered a knee injury in the same game and, while able to finish the game, had to be placed on the injured reserve for the rest of the season...Chosen by the Bills on the fourth round in 1979, he was the 114th player drafted.

COLLEGE/PERSONAL: Was chosen first team All-North Central Conference as a senior and his team's top defensive player at Nebraska-Omaha...Named defensive player-of-the-week five times as a senior...Led the Mavericks in tackles (88) and tied a school record with six interceptions in his final season...Also returned punts and had one for a TD...Coached by Bill Danenhauer and Sandy Buda...A native of Omaha, he is a graduate of Harry A. Burke High School in the city...Has a degree in criminal justice from UNO...Has worked on a private pilot's license in his spare time and has also been involved in a pair of pizza and Mexican restaurants in his hometown area...Worked as a counselor in the New York State Migrant Education program in 1980...One of his hobbies is training attack dogs...Full name is Rod Randle Kush...He and his wife, Kathy, lived in Gretna, Nebraska in the offseason.

88 Wide Receiver, Texas A&M, Draft(#3A-1981)
6-1, 186, Born 6-30-58, 3rd Year

Experienced a frustrating 1983 season with the Bills...Plagued by injuries early in the year and again late in the campaign but in between, he came up with some memorable plays for the club...Injuries limited his playing time to seven games which included his first two starts as a pro against New England (11/6) and New York (11/13)...A hamstring injury kept him sidelined for the first four games...Was having a productive year after coming back from that injury when he suffered a right knee injury in practice just prior to the Bills game with the Raiders which ended the season for him...Underwent arthroscopic surgery in March and is looking forward to being at 100 percent for the 1984 season...Finished last season on the injured reserve list...Although he played in just seven games, he did catch 14 passes for 180 yards and three touchdowns...Certainly his most noteworthy reception was his first of the season which came against Miami in the Orange Bowl...Subbing for Frank Lewis, he grabbed a 35-yard pass from Joe Ferguson on third and ten which helped set up Joe Danelo's game-winning field goal in OT in Buffalo's 38-35 win...Did not catch another pass until three weeks later when he took over for an injured Jerry Butler against New Orleans...Had his top day as a pro in the Bills' 27-21 win, catching five passes for 59 yards and two scores...Made his first pro start the next week against the Patriots and caught five more passes for 52 yards...Had three additional grabs a week later against the Jets at Shea Stadium, including a 10-yard TD from Ferguson...However, his season came to a halt in practice just a few days after Buffalo's win over the Jets...Was also used as a kick return man for the team and had nine returns for a fine 26.2 average...Led all NFL return men in that category in 1982 with a 27.1 average on 18 returns...Seven of his 18 returns were for 30 yards or more with a long of 66 yards against Miami (11/21/82)...Also broke a 50-yarder against Tampa Bay that season...Caught nine passes for 96 yards that season...Led all Buffalo punt return men in 1982 with a 5.5 average...One of the fastest players on the squad and is capable of coming up with the big play...Missed the entire 1981 season with a nagging hamstring pull which caused him to be placed on the injured reserve list (8/18/81)...Played quarterback in college...Picked in the third round in 1981, he was the 76th player chosen.

COLLEGE/PERSONAL: Was a two-sport letterman at Texas A&M, winning awards in both football and track...Started at quarterback for the Aggies as both a sophomore and junior before sharing duties as a senior...Developed his running skills while directing A&M's wishbone attack...Had 1,206 yards rushing and 18 rushing TD's...He also completed 204 passes for 2,545 yards and seven scores...Was a sprinter, hurdler and long-jumper on the track team...Played for coaches Emory Bellard and Tom Wilson and played on two A&M clubs that participated in the Bluebonnet and Hall of Fame Bowls...A track and football teammate of the Colts' Curtis Dickey...One of the team captains as a senior...Has run a 4.3 40-yard dash...A high school All-America at Humble High School in Texas where he ran for 1,900 yards as a senior, including one game in which he gained 326 yards on just 12 carries in one half...His father, Sam, was his coach...Majored in physical education at A&M...Full name is Michael Gene Mosley...He is a native of Hillsboro, Texas and spent the offseason in Humble, just outside Houston.

MATT VANDEN BOOM

39 Safety, Wisconsin, Draft (#5-1983)
 6-4, 204, Born 4-18-60, 1st Year

Spent the entire 1983 season on injured reserve after suffering a concussion in a training camp scrimmage with the Browns...Did not participate in any practices with the club last year but did attend many of the meetings...The Bills' coaches are hopeful that he will be completely recovered from the concussion problems which first surfaced in his senior year in college...An intelligent player with excellent hitting ability...Will probably get a look at free safety for the Bills...Chosen by Buffalo in the fifth round in 1983, he was the 126th player selected.

COLLEGE/PERSONAL: Won All-Big Ten plaudits as both a junior and senior at safety for the University of Wisconsin...Originally enrolled at the school as a 170-pound walk-on wide receiver before moving to defense...Won first team UPI All-America honors as a junior when he tied for the Big Ten lead with six interceptions...Ranked 16th nationally that year...Played for coach Dave McClain...A Badger co-captain as a senior...Had his finest game as a collegian against Michigan in the 1981 season opener when he picked off three Wolverine passes...Had 91 career tackles and seven interceptions...His one interception in 1982 helped stop a late Kansas State rally in Wisconsin's Independence Bowl win...Also played in the Garden State Bowl as a junior...A 1978 red-shirt...Invited to the Japan Bowl following his senior year...One of the top student-athletes in the country as a senior, earning Academic All-America honors and winning an NCAA Post-Graduate Scholarship worth $2,000...Honored by The Milwaukee Journal as a scholar-athlete with its Russ Winnie Award...Graduated with a double major in marketing and finance...A graduate of Kimberly High School in Kimberly, Wisconsin...Second team All-State as a senior...Twice chosen All-Conference in baseball...A native of Appleton, Wisconsin...Full name is Mathew James Vanden Boom...Lived in Kimberly in the offseason.

Scott Virkus

Tim Vogler

SCOTT VIRKUS93 Defensive End, San Francisco CC, FA (6-17-83)
6-5, 255, Born 9-7-59, 2nd Year

A promising young defensive end whose play in training camp and preseason last year earned him a berth on the club for the regular season...Had limited playing experience when he signed with the Bills, but showed great improvement during the season and his playing time increased later in the year...Played in 15 games as a rookie...Used mostly with special teams early in the year but was utilized in passing situations more after injuries struck...The 1984 season should be a good test for him...Contributed five tackles last year...Saw a lot of action against New England (11/6) when Ken Johnson was slowed with a pinched nerve in his shoulder...Was a tight end when he signed with the Bills but moved to defense before the start of training camp...One of the fastest players on the Bills.

COLLEGE/PERSONAL: Had a very limited collegiate career...Spent his freshman year at Purdue before transferring and playing one season at San Francisco City College, the same school that O.J. Simpson attended before going to USC...Was a tight end there and set a school record with a 99-yard TD...Was an All-Golden Gate Conference choice...Played one year with the North Tonawanda Cougars, a Buffalo-area semi-pro club...A graduate of Greece Olympia High School in Rochester, New York...Full name is Scott Virkus...Spent time between Rochester and Buffalo in the offseason.

Games Played (Starts): 1983-15 (0).

TIM VOGLER65 Guard-Center, Ohio St., FA (5-24-79)
6-3, 255, Born 10-20-56, 6th Year

Proved to be one of the most valuable members of the offensive line last season...Although he wasn't a starter, he proved to be a very valuable reserve for the club...Capable of playing either guard or center, he also showed his versatility by filling in at tight end on short yardage situations late in the season when injuries struck...Saw most of his action at guard and played a great deal against the Jets (10/3) at right guard when Jon Borchardt left the game with an ankle injury...Also filled in at left guard against New Orleans (10/30) when Jim Ritcher suffered a minor neck injury...Also worked at center during the season and could play there if needed...Has been a valuable member of the special teams since earning a spot on the club in 1979...Has appeared in 57 games for the Bills but has yet to start a game...Has good work habits and has shown marked improvement each season...Injuries caused him to miss some games as a rookie (hand) and in his second year (hamstring)...Weighed less than 230 pounds when he came to the Bills but has added size and strength through a dedicated weight training program.

COLLEGE/PERSONAL: Was a four-year letterman at Ohio State where he played for coach Woody Hayes...Started at center his final two years and was a co-captain as a senior when OSU played in the Gator Bowl against Clemson...He was also on Buckeye clubs that played in the Rose, Orange and Sugar Bowls...Was a man on the move at Ohio State, having played five positions during his career...In addition to center, he also played linebacker, fullback, tackle and guard...Attended Covington, Ohio High School where he was an All-State choice at fullback...Full name is Timothy Gene Vogler...Last name is pronounced VOH'-glur...Has a twin brother, Terry, who also has played at Ohio State...Majored in Industrial Arts...Enjoys hunting and fishing...Born in Covington, Ohio, he and his wife, Terri, now reside in Hamburg, N.Y., the year round with their daughter, Jessica.

LEN WALTERSCHEID45*Safety, So. Utah St., Waivers, Chi. (8-31-83)
5-11, 190, Born 9-13-54, 8th Year

The 1983 season proved to be an unlucky one for the former Chicago Bear safety...Signed as a free agent just prior to the start of the season after being claimed on waivers from the Bears, he played in just three games before suffering a broken leg on the punt return team against Houston (9/25)...Spent the remainder of the year on injured reserve...The Bills were hopeful that he could have provided help at their troubled free safety spot when they claimed him from Chicago...Saw his most extensive action against Baltimore in Game three when Rod Kush went down with a knee injury...Played almost three quarters of that game...Was both a starter and reserve with the Bears...Made 15 career starts at free safety and one at strong safety...Was a do-it-all defensive back for the Bears, returning both kick-offs and punts...Had seven career interceptions and turned in some solid numbers in the return department...Had a 36-yard interception return vs. Green Bay (12/7/80) for a score in his fourth season...Led the Bears that year in interceptions with four...His first career interception against Atlanta's Steve Bartkowski (11/19/78) helped preserve Chicago's 13-7 win and snap an eight-game losing string...Was seventh among NFC kickoff return men in 1979 with a 22.5 average...Averaged a healthy 30.5 average on 11 returns in 1978...Had 81-yarder vs. Raiders that year...Slowed part of the 1981 season with a knee injury which forced him to be placed on injured reserve...Passed over in the college draft in 1977, he went to a free agent camp and was recommended to the Bears by Sid Gillman...Signed twice by the Bears as a free agent (5/10/77; 9/13/77)...Waived in 1977 (8/31).

COLLEGE/PERSONAL: A two-sport letterman at Southern Utah State College in Cedar City, Utah...Lettered in both track and football for the Thunderbirds...Two-time MVP in football there and was the Rocky Mountain Athletic Conference MVP his senior year...Set a school mark with a 15.3 punt return average and also for longest reception (94 yards) and longest kickoff return (95 yards)...Caught 44 passes for 747 yards and seven scores as a senior...Also punted for the club...A graduate of Grant County High School in Moab, Utah...Has a degree in physical education from Southern Utah State...Is a member of the National Ski Patrol and has also worked as a firefighter for the U.S. Forest Service...Lost parts of fingers on left hand working as oil well roughneck in 1975...Born in Gainesville, Texas...Full name is Leonard Ray Walterscheid...Last name is pronounced Walter-SHY-ed...Spent the offseason in Moab, Utah with his wife, Korine, and son, Justin.

BEN WILLIAMS

77 Defensive End, Mississippi, Draft (#3-1976)
6-3, 260, Born 9-1-54, 9th Year

Finished as the leading tackler among Bills' defensive linemen for the fourth year in succession in 1983...Narrowly missed a return trip to the Pro Bowl, an honor he earned for the first time in 1982...Led all Buffalo players in sacks with 10 which raised his career total to 47½...Has been the leader in that category in three of the last four seasons (1980-81-83)...Recovered two fumbles...Had two of his best games in 1983 against the Dolphins...In the season opener at Rich Stadium, he had nine tackles, and three quarterback sacks, one of which caused a fumble that he recovered...In the second meeting with Miami, he had seven tackles and two sacks...Has started at left defensive end for seven straight seasons with the Bills...One of his strengths is his consistency...Also has great quickness...Made the Pro Bowl for the first time in 1982 after turning in a strong season for the Bills...Had 46 tackles and four sacks that year and also had a key interception in Buffalo's 13-0 win over Pittsburgh...The 107 tackles he had in 1983 represented a career high...His previous best came in 1979 when he had 86 stops...In the sack department, his best year was in 1980 when he had a dozen which accounted for 114½ yards in losses...Chosen to the second team on the All-AFC team that year by UPI...Much of his success can be attributed to a dedicated weight training program and hard work which has helped him start 108 of the last 109 games for the Bills...The lone miss in that period came in 1979 when he did not start against San Diego (9/16)...Has been a Buffalo captain the last two seasons...Chosen by Buffalo in the third round in the 1976 NFL draft, he was the 78th player picked...Named to the Bills' Silver Anniversary All-Time Team last spring.

COLLEGE/PERSONAL: Had a standout career at the University of Mississippi where he won four letters and was a tri-captain as a senior...Played for coaches Billy Kinard, John Vaught and Ken Cooper during his stay at Ole Miss and capped his senior year by earning All-Southeastern Conference honors on both UPI and AP clubs...Also earned first team honors as a sophomore and junior on the UPI team...Played in the Senior Bowl, East-West Shrine game and the All-America Bowl...Played both middle guard and defensive tackle at Mississippi...Was once picked as the AP National Line-man-of-the-Week at Ole Miss as a sophomore...Full name is Robert Jerry Williams...Born in Yazoo City, Miss., he and his wife, Linda, reside in Jackson, Miss., in the offseason with their two children, Rodrick and Aisha...Has worked in a bank there the past few off seasons handling installment loans...Was a standout player at Yazoo City High School...Enjoys playing softball and chess in his spare time.

Defensive Back, LSU, Draft (#2A-1981)
6-0, 197, Born 1-22-59, 3rd Year

Served as the "relief" specialist in the Bills' secondary last year... Played in all 16 games and was a starter in five of those games... Moved in as a starter at free safety for those five games when Rod Kush went down with a knee injury early in the year...He also filled in at cornerback vs. Cincinnati when Charles Rome left the game with a hamstring problem...Tied for club leadership in interceptions with Steve Freeman with three each...Had one of the year's big plays for the Bills in their 14-9 win over Kansas City when he stopped a late Chief drive with a theft at the Buffalo 26-yard line with just over a minute to play...One of his other interceptions against Baltimore (10/16) helped set up a TD...Made his other theft against the Jets (10/3)...Is a good athlete capable of playing any of the secondary positions...Came up with 58 tackles last year and had a fumble recovery vs. Houston... Played in just five games in 1982 when he was troubled with a knee injury which he suffered against Minnesota in the second game of the year...Was on injured reserve until mid-November and missed four games following the strike...Used mostly as a nickel back that year...Missed almost the entire 1981 season with a knee injury but was activated in time for the playoffs where he saw action in two games...Has run a 4.45 forty...Was Buffalo's first second round pick (Byron Franklin the other) in the 1981 college draft and was the 49th player taken...The Bills obtained the pick from Cleveland in the Joe DeLamielleure (9/1/80) trade.

COLLEGE/PERSONAL: Had an outstanding career at Louisiana State University where he won four letters...Played for coaches Charles McClendon and Jerry Stovall...Twice selected All-Southeastern Conference and his team's co-MVP as a senior when he had six interceptions and 94 tackles...Earned second team All-America honors as a senior and played in the Blue-Gray, Senior Bowl and East-West Shrine game...Had 20 career interceptions which tied an SEC record...Was also used as a punt and kickoff return man in college and finished his career with a 21.6 average on kickoffs and 11.0 on punts...Finished second in the SEC in KO returns as a junior with a 27.6 average despite missing the latter part of the season because of knee surgery...Returned punts of 70 yards and 60 yards for touchdowns in his freshman season against Oregon and Tulane...Was second among Division I-A players as a sophomore with eight interceptions...A member of LSU teams that were in the Sun, Liberty and Tangerine Bowls...Full name is Chris Albany Williams...A native of Alexandria, La., he attended high school in Tioga, La., where he was a prep All-State and All-America pick...Rushed for over 1,000 yards twice in his career...A brother played football at Grambling...Majorred in elementary education at LSU...Left the bachelor ranks last February when he married the former Darlene Nowicki.

VAN WILLIAMS

23 Running Back, Carson-Newman, Dr., (#4-1982)
6-0, 212, Born 3-15-59, 2nd Year

Although his playing time was limited last season, he is expected to be right in the picture for a starting berth in the backfield with the departure of Joe Cribbs...His activity in 1983 consisted of one start (Raiders) and just three carries for 11 yards (all against the Raiders) ...He also shared kickoff return duties with Robb Riddick and averaged a healthy 22.0 yards on 25 returns...Ranked sixth in the AFC in that category...Had his longest return of the year against New England (10/23) when he broke one 60 yards which was also the longest of the year for the Bills...Played in all 16 games and also distinguished himself as a key man on kickoff coverage...Had one of his best efforts against Miami in Buffalo's win in the Orange Bowl...Had a pair of tackles inside the 20-yard line and also had a kickoff return of 40 yards which helped set up a TD...Also had a fumble recovery against the Rams...Spent the 1982 season on injured reserve after suffering an injury to his right knee in a rookie scrimmage with the Browns at the start of camp...Has excellent speed and has run a 4.49 forty...Will probably work again as a kickoff return man for the Bills in 1984 and could handle punts if needed...Was Buffalo's fourth round pick in the 1982 draft and the 93rd player selected.

COLLEGE/PERSONAL: A standout at Carson-Newman College in Jefferson City, Tenn., where he performed for coach Ken Sparks... Had a record-setting senior year for the Fighting Eagles when he rushed for 1,285 yards on 261 carries and scored 14 touchdowns, including 13 on the ground...Also caught 15 passes for 191 yards... Set a school record with 174 yards rushing against Lenoir-Rhyne and also broke the mark for carries in a career with 399 attempts...Played part of his college career at East Tennessee State University.... Gained 1,929 yards in his career...An AP honorable mention All-America as a senior and the NAIA District Player-of-the-Year...Is a graduate of All-Science High School in Johnson City, Tenn., where he won All-State plaudits...Born and still resides in Johnson City, Tenn...Full name is George Van Williams...Was a physical education major at Carson-Newman.

1983 GAME SUMMARIES

MIAMI 12, BUFFALO 0

ORCHARD PARK, N.Y., Sept. 4—Those who thought they were watching an instant replay could be forgiven. For the second straight year, the Buffalo-Miami game at Rich Stadium was marked by the Buffalo defense's refusal to surrender a touchdown to the Dolphin's offense only to watch Miami escape with a victory on the toe of placekicker Uwe von Schamann. The Dolphins won 12-0 on four von Schamann field goals (33, 23, 36 and 50 yards). On November 21st last year, the result was much the same—no Dolphins touchdowns but three von Schamann field goals in a 9-7 Miami triumph. For the Bills' offensive unit, it was an afternoon of total frustration. Buffalo had the edge in total yards (258-177), first downs (14-13) and passing yards (172-26) but nothing to show for it on the scoreboard. The Bills' only scoring opportunities were three Fred Steinfort field goals—one blocked and the other two unsuccessful. Quarterback Joe Ferguson passed for 233 yards but was sacked an uncharacteristic six times and suffered two interceptions, both of which led to Dolphin field goals. Veteran defensive end Ben Williams was a terror for the Bills. Williams had three sacks, participated in nine tackles, forced a fumble and recovered a fumble.

BUFFALO 10, CINCINNATI 6

CINCINNATI, Ohio, Sept. 11—Leading the home-standing Bengals 10-6 with approximately three minutes to play, Buffalo had run out of all but 144 inches of football field. Cincinnati was camped at the Buffalo four with a first and goal. On first down, Charles Alexander was held for no gain. A pass from backup quarterback Turk Schonert misfired on second down. On third down, Alexander swept to the Buffalo one-half yard line. Eighteen inches from paydirt, the Bengals called on Alexander who hit a brick wall of blue jerseys as the Bengals hopes of a comeback victory expanded a footprint away from the end zone. The courageous stand by the Buffalo defense preserved the Bills' first victory under new coach Kay Stephenson. For the second game in a row, the Buffalo offense had problems scoring although the Bills generated 267 yards and controlled the clock (33:44 to 26:16) with time-consuming drives, two of which ended in abortive field goal efforts. Buffalo's lone touchdown came on a 14-yard toss from Joe Ferguson to Jerry Butler. Ferguson beat a Bengal blitz to hit Butler, who finished with six receptions for 52 yards.

BUFFALO 28, BALTIMORE 23

ORCHARD PARK, N.Y., Sept. 18—Quarterback Joe Ferguson, who had thrown only three scoring passes in his last nine games, came roaring out of his personal slump with three touchdown tosses to bring the Bills from behind four times in a 28-23 victory over the pesky Baltimore Colts. The Colts led 6-0, 9-7, 16-14 and 23-21 before finally bowing. Ferguson hit 18 of 27 passes for the afternoon, including scoring strikes to Frank Lewis and Joe Cribbs twice. It was the Ferguson to Cribbs combination that produced Buffalo's first and last touchdowns of the afternoon. Ferguson found Cribbs on a three-yard pitch in the second quarter to cap a march of 67 yards in 11 plays. They clicked again in the final period, this time for the game-winner of two yards to finish off a short push of 14 yards in three plays set up by Chris Keating's recovery of a Mike Pagel fumble. Cribbs led all of the game's rushers with 82 yards on 24 carries, had three catches for 14 yards and scored three TDs (including one of one-yard rushing) for only the second time in his four-year NFL career. Baltimore's long-range striking power wrote a finish to Buffalo's string of 20 quarters without surrendering a touchdown at Rich Stadium.

BUFFALO 30, HOUSTON 13

ORCHARD PARK, N.Y., Sept. 25—With Joe Cribbs running for a personal high of 166 rushing yards, Buffalo mounted a productive ground game to polish off another "jinx" team, defeating the Oilers 30-13 for the first time since 1966. Houston had reeled off 10 straight victories in the series, the longest current streak by one team over another in the National Football League. Buffalo had its best rushing total of the young season, accumulating 228 yards on 32 attempts—the Bills' best single game total on the ground since they rolled up 245 yards vs. the Colts on Nov. 28, 1982. Cribbs collected 166 yards on 22 carries to surpass his top previous total of 159 vs. Baltimore in 1981. He scored the first Buffalo touchdown on a one-yard run. Booker Moore, the ex-Penn State fullback making his first start for the Bills, turned in his best single game performance to date with 62 yards on ten carries. With the running game functioning efficiently, Ferguson tried only 22 passes but cashed in on two of his eleven completions for touchdowns to Jerry Butler and Frank Lewis. The Buffalo defense recorded seven quarterback sacks and turned in the first defensive touchdown since December 7, 1980. Rookie David Kilson did the honors, scooping up a fumble by Houston quarterback Gifford Nielsen, forced by Ken Johnson's sack, and going a record 87 yards for the final TD.

NEW YORK JETS 34, BUFFALO 10

ORCHARD PARK, N.Y., Oct. 3—ABC Television's primetime spotlight brought out the best in the New York Jets and the worst in the Buffalo Bills as Richard Todd's passes and Mark Gastineau's dances beat a 34-10 tattoo on the Bills before 79,933, largest crowd ever to see a regular season game in Rich Stadium. Despite a wide statistical edge, the Jets managed only a 7-0 halftime lead as the Buffalo defense turned aside two New York drives into Bills' territory, one ending on an abortive field goal try of 38 yards by Pat Leahy and the other crumbling when Chris Williams intercepted Todd in the end zone. New York moved up 10-0 on Leahy's 19-yard field goal in the third period but Buffalo counterattacked quickly with Joe Ferguson completing three passes and making two key runs to put the ball deep in New York territory. On a third and goal from the Jets one, however, Joe Cribbs fumbled and New York recovered. Ferguson suffered a slight concussion in the third quarter drive and was sidelined for the remainder of the evening. Matt Kofler, who had not thrown a pass in his brief career of 13 NFL games, came into a tight spot on his first series. The Bills were backed up to their own one-yard line by a Chuck Ramsey punt. On first down, Cribbs got the call and fumbled with Gastineau recovering in the end zone for a Jet touchdown. Gastineau also recorded three quarterback sacks for the Jets' defense, which dumped Ferguson and Kofler a total of seven times.

BUFFALO 38, MIAMI 35

MIAMI, Fla., Oct. 9—Kicker Joe Danelo sent a 36-yard field goal squarely between the uprights to end 17 years of frustration for the Buffalo Bills, who had not defeated Miami in the Orange Bowl since 1966. Danelo's kick, which came with 1:02 remaining in overtime and produced a 38-35 Buffalo triumph, triggered a wild celebration by Buffalo players, not one of whom had ever been part of a victory over the Dolphins in Miami. Bills' quarterback Joe Ferguson, who had his share of Orange Bowl trauma in eleven starting assignments against the Dolphins there, had the most brilliant afternoon of his 11-year NFL career, setting six different Buffalo passing records and tying two others as triggerman of the Bills' high-octane attack. Ferguson completed 38 of 55 passes for 419 yards, all individual and team marks, and connected for five touchdowns, which tied the Bills record in both departments. For awhile, it appeared Miami's mastery might continue for another year. Buffalo squandered an early lead of 14-0 and, after edging in front 28-21 early in the fourth quarter, saw the Dolphins rally to a 35-28 lead with just 3:06 to play. Ferguson saved the Bills from cardiac arrest with a march of 80 yards in 13 plays, capped by a one-yard scoring pass to Joe Cribbs in a fourth and goal situation with only 23 seconds remaining. In the drive, Ferguson hit a monstrous third down and 16 pass to Byron Franklin (for 20 yards) and converted a big third and three situation with a 10-yard toss to Mark Brammer. Miami had two shots at winning in the overtime period but long field goal attempts of 52 and 43 yards by Uwe von Schamann misfired. Buffalo began its winning drive from its own 26 with 5:15 left in the extra period. After picking up one first down, Ferguson was faced with a third and 10 situation at the Buffalo 36, Frank Lewis, one of his most trusted receiving partners, was on the sidelines for a breather from the 80-degree day and second-year man Mike Mosley was in the unfamiliar flanker position. Ferguson went right to Mosley for a 35-yard gain that put Buffalo in business at the Dolphin 29-yard line. Three plays later, Danelo kicked the winning field goal.

BUFFALO 30, BALTIMORE 7

BALTIMORE, Md., Oct. 16—The showdown for first place in the AFC East turned into a Joe Ferguson—Joe Cribbs hoedown as Buffalo's two big offensive weapons personally accounted for 335 yards in a surprisingly-easy 30-7 victory over the Baltimore Colts. Both teams went into the games with 4-2 marks tied for top spot in the division standings. The Colts moved 75 yards on their first possession only to come up empty when Randy McMillan fumbled at the goal line and the ball rolled out of the end zone for a touchback. The next time Baltimore gained control, the Colts scored on a gadget play—a flea flicker from Mike Pagel to Ray Butler, which covered 52 yards for a touchdown. Ferguson was spectacular for the second straight week, quickly regaining control of the game with touchdown passes the next three times Buffalo touched the ball. He hit Cribbs on a 14-yard toss to tie it at 7-7, connected with Mark Brammer on a four-yards pitch to edge the Bills in front 14-7 and opened up some daylight with a 20-yard pitch to Frank Lewis that made it 21-7. The rest of Buffalo's scoring was left to kicker Joe Danelo, who hit on field goals of 23, 40 and 30 yards. Cribbs' afternoon included the eleventh 100-yard rushing game of his four-year NFL career (105 on 19 carries) and four pass receptions for 50 yards and one touchdown. Ferguson was 21 of 30 for 230 yards and three TDs. He was neither intercepted nor sacked. Tight end Mark Brammer had the best day of his career with six pass receptions for 54 yards and one TD.

NEW ENGLAND 31, BUFFALO 0

ORCHARD PARK, N.Y., Oct. 23—Roland James made three pass interceptions in the fourth period and the New England Patriots cashed in on each of them for points in a big final stanza that left the Bills reeling by a count of 31-0 in this matchup of AFC Eastern Division rivals. The Patriots had a modest lead of 14-0 on two Steve Grogan touchdown passes to tight end Derrick Ramsey but the Bills were threatening to get back in the game. Two Joe Ferguson-to-Frank Lewis passes and a 21-yard burst up the middle by Booker Moore had moved Buffalo to the New England 18-yard line early in the fourth quarter. On first down from the 18, Ferguson rolled out and tried to hit Lewis in the end zone. James intercepted and returned the ball to midfield and, one play later, Tony Collins galloped 50 yards to put the visitors up 21-0. On each Buffalo series that followed, James intercepted Ferguson and the Patriots converted the turnovers into points. On a day when rushing and receiving leader Joe Cribbs was held to 30 yards (on 12 carries) and one reception (for six yards), Moore led the Buffalo ground attack with 51 yards on six carries and Lewis wound up the leading receiver with seven catches for 116 yards, the 15th time in his career he had topped the 100-yard figure. Tony Collins made it a long day for the Baltimore defense with 147 yards on 23 carries.

BUFFALO 27, NEW ORLEANS 21

ORCHARD PARK, N.Y., Oct. 30—Buffalo made the most of its first three possessions, scoring on each of them for a quick 20-0 lead, but had to withstand three "jump balls" in the end zone at the finish to claim a 27-21 victory over the fast-finishing New Orleans Saints. The first time the Bills had the ball, quarterback Joe Ferguson, who threw for four touchdowns, took them 80 yards in 10 plays, hitting Jerry Butler with a 15-yard toss for the touchdown. After a Charles Rome's interception at the Bills' 34-yard line, Ferguson orchestrated a 66-yard march in five plays. The touchdown came on a perfectly-executed tight end screen to rookie Tony Hunter, the play covering 40 yards. Ex-Wishbone quarterback Mike Mosley playing in place of the injured Butler, was Ferguson's partner on the final two Buffalo touchdowns, a 22-yard pitch that put the finishing touch on a push 60 yards in nine plays and an eight-yard pass play deep into the third quarter that opened up a 27-7 lead. For the day, Mosley had five catches, 59 receiving yards and two TDs—best totals of his abbreviated NFL career.

NEW ENGLAND 21, BUFFALO 7

FOXBORO, Mass., Nov. 6—For the second time in three weeks, the New England Patriots played suffocating defense and rode the stout legs of Tony Collins and the good right arm of Steve Grogan to a victory over the Buffalo Bills. In their 31-0 win at Rich Stadium on October 23, Collins rushed for 147 yards while Grogan threw two touchdown passes. This time it wasn't a lot different as Collins collected 100 yards and Grogan pitched for two more TDs. New England rolled up 450 yards against a Buffalo defense, hinned by the loss of starters Sherman White and Mario Clark. The final score notwithstanding, the Bills weren't without their opportunities in their third straight setback at the hands of the Patriots. One touchdown, a 45-yard third quarter scoring toss to wide receiver Julius Dawkins, was called back for offensive pass interference; Joe Danelo missed a 24-yard field goal in the second quarter and, just before halftime, the Bills came up empty on four tries from the Patriot one-yard line. Joe Ferguson was intercepted four times, giving the Pats a total of seven interceptions in the two games, but finally got the Bills on the board late in the fourth quarter, hitting Mark Brammer on a one-yard pass.

BUFFALO 24, NEW YORK JETS 17

NEW YORK, N.Y., Nov. 13—Buffalo awoke from its first half slumber with an inspired second half effort which carried the Bills to a 24-17 win over the Jets at Shea Stadium. Trailing 14-0 at the half, the Bills rode the passing arm of quarterback Joe Ferguson, who tossed three second half TD's, including the game winner with 22 seconds left to Joe Cribbs from 33 yards out. The Bills got their first touchdown midway in the third period when Ferguson hit Mike Mosley with a 10-yard scoring toss to help the Bills within 7 points, 14-7. Moments later, linebacker Joey Lumpkin recovered a Jets' fumble on a kickoff and Ferguson moved the Bills 25 yards in just five plays for a tying score. A 19-yard pass from Ferguson to Byron Franklin tied the game. The Jets regained the lead on their next possession when Pat Leahy kicked a 48-yard field goal with just over a minute left in the third period. However, Buffalo countered with a field goal of its own just six minutes into the final period when Joe Danelo hit from 30-yards out. The Bills defense rose to the occasion shortly after. Linebacker Chris Keating forced a Jets' fumble at the Bills' 30-yard line which was recovered by Ken Johnson and ended the possibility of a Jet score. After an exchange of punts, the Bills mounted their winning drive which was highlighted by three successive completions by Ferguson of 13, 22 and 33 yards. The Bills defense limited New York to just 96 total yards in the second half.

LOS ANGELES RAIDERS 27, BUFFALO 24

ORCHARD PARK, N.Y., Nov. 20—A 36-yard field goal by Matt Bahr with no time left spoiled the Bills' spirited comeback as the Raiders posted a 27-24 win before 72,393 fans at Rich Stadium. Trailing 24-3 following a 15-yard pass from Jim Plunkett to Todd Christensen just over four minutes into the final period, Buffalo put together a furious rally behind backup quarterback Matt Kofler, who had replaced an injured Joe Ferguson in the second period. Kofler strung together four straight completions following the score and teamed up with rookie tight end Tony Hunter on a 23-yard scoring toss to help Buffalo pull within two scores, 24-10. Three minutes later the Bills struck again, thanks to a big play by their defense when it forced punter Ray Guy to run on fourth down which resulted in a 10-yard loss. Four plays later, Joe Cribbs dove in from a yard out to cut the margin to 24-17. The Bills special teams came through once again following Cribbs' TD. Rookie Darryl Caldwell recovered the ensuing kickoff at the Raiders' 23-yard line and it took Buffalo just four plays to score. Kofler continued his magic with just over four minutes left when he hit Perry Tuttle with a 28-yard TD on fourth and 15. However, that would be the last time that Buffalo would touch the ball in the game. The Raiders used up the remaining time behind Plunkett and drove 65 yards in 13 plays with Bahr's field goal capping the drive. Kofler finished the day with nine completions in 14 attempts, including seven of 10 in the second half for 111 yards.

LOS ANGELES RAMS 41, BUFFALO 17

ANAHEIM, Calif., Nov. 27—Quarterback Vince Ferragamo and rookie running back sensations Eric Dickerson proved to be the offensive heroes and Johnny Johnson and Eric Harris spearheaded the defense as the Los Angeles Rams posted a 41-17 win over the Bills at Anaheim Stadium. Ferragamo tossed three TD passes in the win and Dickerson rolled up 125 yards on 32 carries as the Rams' defense intercepted five Joe Ferguson passes all in the second half. Harris and Johnson each had two thefts as Joe Ferguson suffered through one of his worst second halves as a pro. The Bills actually hung in until early in the fourth period when the roof caved in. Trailing at the half, 14-7, Buffalo managed to stay within a TD until early in the fourth period following a 20-yard field goal by Joe Danelo which made it 24-17, but the Bills were unable to put another score on the board after that. On the other hand, the Rams got a 15-yard TD from Ferragamo to Preston Dennard, (his second TD of the game) a 49-yard field goal from Mike Lansford and a 60-yard interception return by Johnson which broke open the game. Both of Johnson's interceptions came in the final period and came on subsequent Buffalo possessions. The Bills did get solid efforts in the loss from Byron Franklin and Booker Moore. Franklin caught four passes for 106 yards which included a 43-yard TD, while Moore had eight receptions for 63 yards. Statistically, it was a close game. The Rams outgained the Bills by just ten yards, 355 to 345, but the five interceptions played a large role in the Rams' win.

BUFFALO 14, KANSAS CITY 9

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Dec. 4—Running back Joe Cribbs rushed for a career high 185 yards and some big plays by the Buffalo defense were the keys in the Bills 14-9 win over Kansas City at Arrowhead Stadium. Cribbs set personal bests in both the number of rushes and single game yardage with his 36 carry, 185-yard effort. It was also the second year in succession that Buffalo had held Kansas City without a touchdown in a game. The Bills posted a 14-9 win in 1982, staving off a late KC rally with an interception just as they did on this afternoon at Arrowhead Stadium. Ironically, when Chris Williams' intercepted a Bill Kenney pass at the Buffalo 26-yard line with just 1:08 left, it was almost a similar situation to a year earlier when Bill Simpson halted a KC drive with a last minute interception. The Bills struck first when Joe Ferguson teamed up with Perry Tuttle from 17-yards out in the second period before a pair of Nick Lowery field goals drew the Chiefs within one, 7-6. However, the Bills defense came up with one of the many big plays it turned in during the game early in the final period when safety Mike Kennedy intercepted a Kenney pass and raced in from 22 yards out to help Buffalo build a 14-6 lead. Earlier in the game, the defense led by safety Steve Freeman, stopped Kansas City on seven consecutive tries inside Buffalo's 10-yard line, including five times from the one-yard line just prior to halftime. Cribbs was particularly effective in the second half for the Bills, gaining 141 of his yards after intermission in his finest effort of the year.

SAN FRANCISCO 23, BUFFALO 10

ORCHARD PARK, N.Y., Dec. 11—Buffalo threw a scare into NFC power San Francisco by building a 10-6 halftime lead, but the 49ers roared back with 17 unanswered second half points to post a 23-10 victory over the Bills in Buffalo's final home appearance of the 1983 season. While it seemed everything went right for the Bills in the first half, it was just the opposite in the second half as the visitors took advantage of three turnovers, including a pair of costly fumbles to grab the lead for good. Things started to go bad for Buffalo right from the outset in the second half. After returning the opening kickoff 41 yards, Buffalo's Robb Riddick coughed up the ball and it took quarterback Joe Montana just seven plays to drive the 49ers 41 yards for the go-ahead score, a four-yard pass from Montana to Roger Craig. Moments later, San Francisco struck again following a Greg Cater punt. Montana came up with a clutch third-and-fifteen completion and then three plays later, Wendell Tyler scored from a yard out and San Francisco never looked back, increasing its lead to 20-10. Buffalo had two other scoring possibilities go awry in the final period. A high snap on a field goal attempt by Joe Danelo caused him to miss a 38-yarder and Joe Ferguson had a pass intercepted in the end zone after Buffalo had driven to the SF one-yard line. The Bills had built their first half lead with a strong first half effort by both its offense and defense. Joe Cribbs picked up 74 of his game-high 100 yards before intermission while the defense limited the 49ers to just two field goals and just 40 yards rushing. The defense sacked Montana three times in the first half. Fullback Roosevelt Leaks scored Buffalo's lone TD when he dove in from one-yard out to cap an eight play, 73-yard drive in the second period.

ATLANTA 31, BUFFALO 14

ATLANTA, Ga., Dec. 18—Buffalo still had an outside shot at making the playoffs entering its final game of the year against Atlanta, but running back William Andrews dashed any hopes for the Bills with a standout performance in the Falcons' 31-14 win over the Bills. With a crowd of 31,015 fans looking on, Andrews rushed for 158 yards, caught seven passes for 49 yards and scored three times as Atlanta finished Buffalo's season. With quarterback Steve Bartkowski hitting 10 of 16 first half passes, the Falcons built a 17-0 lead in the second period and never really looked back after that. Joe Ferguson teamed with Perry Tuttle on a 13-yard scoring toss to cut the margin to 17-7 just before the end of the first half, but Atlanta countered with two Andrews' scores to go ahead 31-7 before Buffalo could finally get on the board again, this time on a 28-yard pass from reserve quarterback Matt Kofler to rookie Julius Dawkins in the final period. It was Dawkins' first TD as a pro. If there were any bright spots on the day for Buffalo, it was the play of Kofler and Tuttle. Before leaving with a shoulder injury in the second half, he caught six passes for 103 yards in his most productive day as a pro, while Kofler completed eight of 10 for 125 yards and a TD.

PATRIOTS 26, BILLS 8

Buffalo, N.Y., Dec. 28, 1963 — Babe Parilli passed for 292 yards and a pair of touchdowns and Gino Cappelletti kicked four field goals to lead the Boston Patriots over Buffalo 26-8 in the Eastern Division playoff game. The Boston defense limited the Bills to just seven yards rushing and intercepted four Bills' passes to ruin Buffalo's first post-season playoff appearance. Buffalo had just 38 yards total offense in the first half as the Patriots broke to a 16-0 lead. The Bills' only scoring threat was set up by a 62-yard kickoff return by Elbert Dubenion, but Buffalo couldn't move and a 39-yard field goal attempt fell short. In the second half, Buffalo scored first on a 93-yard pass play from Daryle Lamonica to Dubenion late in the third quarter, but Boston answered with a 68-yard touchdown drive capped by a Parilli pass to Larry Garron that put the game out of reach.

BILLS 20, CHARGERS 7

Buffalo, N.Y., Dec. 26, 1964 — Buffalo made it's first appearance in an AFL Championship Game a successful one with a 20-7 victory over the San Diego Chargers. The Bills used a punishing ground attack and stingy defense as its main weapons. The Chargers scored first and made it look easy, driving 80 yards in just four plays, but the momentum quickly changed hands. On the Charger's second possession, the Bills' Mike Stratton crashed into San Diego running back Keith Lincoln, putting the Charger star out of the game, and a sense of excitement rippled through the Buffalo stands. The rest of the game belonged to the Bills. Cookie Gilchrist's 122 rushing yards complimented the varied Bills passing attack as Buffalo scored 20 unanswered points. A pair of Pete Gogolak field goals and a four-yard run by Wray Carlton gave Buffalo a 13-7 halftime lead and Jack Kemp's 47-yard pass to Glenn Bass set up a Kemp sneak for a TD in the third quarter that finished the scoring.

BILLS 23, CHARGERS 0

San Diego, Calif., Dec. 26, 1965 — For the second straight year, the Buffalo Bills are champions. And for the second straight year, the Bills can thank their defense. Just ask the frustrated San Diego Chargers, who for the second time fell to the Bills in the AFL Championship Game, this time by a 23-0 count. In eight quarters of championship play, the Chargers have managed just seven points against Buffalo. After an uneventful first quarter, Buffalo scored all the points it needed in this game with a pair of touchdowns in the second quarter. Jack Kemp, voted the game's most valuable player, hit Ernie Warlick with an 18-yard touchdown pass to open the scoring and three minutes later the Bills' Butch Byrd returned a punt 74 yards for a score to put Buffalo on top 14-0. The rest of the game belonged to the Bills' defense as time and again they thwarted San Diego's explosive offense. Three Pete Gogolak field goals in the second half added icing to the Bills' championship cake.

CHIEFS 31, BILLS 7

Buffalo, N.Y., Jan. 1, 1967 — Led by the impeccable quarterbacking of Len Dawson, the Kansas City Chiefs earned the right to play the Green Bay Packers in Super Bowl I by defeating Buffalo 31-7. Dawson completed 16 of 24 passes for 227 yards and a pair of touchdowns while the Kansas City defense forced four Buffalo turnovers and limited the Bills to nine first downs and 40 yards rushing. It was a turnover that turned the game around. The teams traded early touchdowns as the Chiefs took advantage of a Buffalo fumble on the opening kickoff to grab a 7-0 lead. The Bills countered with a 69-yard bomb from Jack Kemp to Elbert Dubenion to tie the game. Dawson hit Otis Taylor with a 29-yard TD pass in the second quarter to put the Chiefs on top, but Kemp moved Buffalo into scoring position near the end of the half. A Johnny Robinson interception and long return set up Mike Mercer's 32-yard field goal with three seconds left in the half and Kansas City had the momentum. Buffalo never penetrated the Chief's 40-yard line in the second half while Kansas City added a pair of scores by Mike Garrett to turn the game into a rout.

STEELERS 32, BILLS 14

Pittsburgh, Pa., Dec. 22, 1974 — A four-touchdown explosion in the second quarter propelled the Pittsburgh Steelers to a 32-14 win over the Bills, spoiling Buffalo's first post-season appearance in eight years. The Bills moved out to an early 7-3 lead on a 22-yard touchdown pass from Joe Ferguson to Paul Seymour. Buffalo's advantage was short-lived against the eventual Super Bowl Champions. Terry Bradshaw ran the Steeler offense to perfection in the second quarter, completing seven of eight passes for 143 yards and repeatedly hurting Buffalo with scrambling gains. Rocky Bleier began the Pittsburgh scoring avalanche with a 27-yard TD reception and Franco Harris scored three times from inside the five yard line as the Steelers moved out to an insurmountable 29-7 lead. In the second half Buffalo's comeback hopes were stymied by the tough Pittsburgh defense and a stubborn ball control offense that kept the ball away from the Bills.

CHARGERS 20, BILLS 14

San Diego, Calif., Jan. 3 — Making their first playoff appearance since 1974, the Bills had a victory within their grasp until the waning moments. Then, in dramatic fashion, the San Diego Chargers rallied from a 14-13 deficit as Quarterback Dan Fouts connected with Wide Receiver Ron Smith on a 50-yard scoring pass with just 2:08 remaining in the game. The reception was only the fifth of the season for Smith. Playing courageously on a badly sprained left ankle, Quarterback Joe Ferguson tried to direct a last ditch bid by the Bills. His efforts were thwarted, however, when a pass was picked off by a San Diego defender after Buffalo had reached midfield. Meeting for the second time at San Diego within a three-month span, the teams battled on even terms until the Chargers got a late first quarter field goal. Then the Bills took command with two second period scores. The first came on a one-yard burst up the middle by Roosevelt Leaks early in the quarter. With only 16 seconds remaining before halftime, Ferguson connected with wide receiver Frank Lewis on a 9-yard scoring play, upping the Bills' margin to 14-3. San Diego countered with a third quarter TD and fourth period field goal before the late heroics by Fouts and Smith. With Ferguson badly hobbled by his ankle injury, the Buffalo offense never got into gear in the second half, managing just 94 total yards. Even so, it took a spectacular play to keep the Bills from achieving their third consecutive win over the Chargers in playoff competition, the last one coming in the 1965 AFL title game.

BILLS 31, JETS 27

NEW YORK, N.Y., Dec. 27, 1981 — In a "wild card" game that lived up to its name, the Buffalo Bills stormed to a 24-0 lead but needed a last-second pass interception by Bill Simpson to preserve their first post-season victory since 1965. Charles Rome's got the visitors off and winging by picking up Bruce Harper's fumble on the opening kickoff and returning it 26 yards for a touchdown. The play took 16 seconds and was the second fastest score in NFL playoff history. Touchdown passes of 50 and 26 yards to Frank Lewis, who caught seven for 158 yards in the game, were sandwiched around a 29-yard Nick Mike-Mayer field goal to put the Bills, who lost in New York 33-14 during the regular season, up by 24-0. The Jets hung up 10 points before halftime and trailed 24-13 after Pat Leahy's 19-yard field goal in the third quarter. Joe Cribbs, who rushed for 83 yards and caught passes for 64 more, staked the Bills to a 31-13 lead with his 45-yard scoring run five minutes deep into the final period. The Jets, however, refused to die. Richard Todd moved them 80 yards in eight plays, hitting Bobby Jones with a 30-yard touchdown toss. After Buffalo failed to move, Todd, helped by a big interference call against Mario Clark that wiped out an apparent interception, got New York on the board again with a 58-yard march that ended on Kevin Long's one-yard plunge to paydirt. Buffalo could not generate a first down and turned the ball back to New York at the Jets' 20 with 2:36 remaining. Todd passed the Jets downfield, reaching the Buffalo 11 with just 10 seconds to play. Simpson stepped in front of his second-and-ten try for Derrick Gaffney in the end zone to intercept at the Buffalo one to seal the Jets' doom.

BENGALS 28, BILLS 21

CINCINNATI, OHIO, Jan. 3, 1982 — AFC Champion Cincinnati, cashing in on a long punt return and a pass interception, jumped to a 14-0 first quarter lead and held on to defeat Buffalo 28-21 in a divisional playoff game at Riverfront Stadium. It was the first post-season victory in the history of the Bengals franchise and, for the second straight year, eliminated the Bills in the semi-finals of the NFL's post-season tournament. The Bengals' Mike Fuller returned a Greg Cater punt 27 yards to start Cincinnati's first possession at the Buffalo 42. Charles Alexander, who was a surprise rushing leader for the Central Division champs with 71 yards, capped a seven-play drive with his four-yard scoring run. After Ken Riley intercepted a Joe Ferguson pass, the Bengals marched 48 yards in eight plays and took a 14-0 advantage on Pete Johnson's one-yard run. Buffalo breathed new life just before halftime, hitting a 54-yard pass from Ferguson to Jerry Butler, and drawing to within 14-7 on Joe Cribbs' one-yard run. Early in the third quarter, the Bills evened the issue on a 44-yard scoring run by Cribbs, a play that would later prove costly as the Buffalo rushing leader injured a knee and played only one more down before retiring for the afternoon. The teams traded touchdowns, Cincinnati scoring on a 20-yard run by Alexander and Buffalo on a 21-yard pass from Ferguson to Butler, to make it 21-21 after one play of the fourth quarter. Bengal quarterback Ken Anderson orchestrated a 78-yard drive in nine plays to put Cincinnati back in the driver's seat 28-21 on a 16-yard scoring pass to Cris Collinsworth. Buffalo's last gasp reached the Bengal 20 late in the final stanza but a controversial delay-of-game penalty wiped out an apparent third down conversion pass to Lou Piccone and Ferguson overthrew Roland Hooks in the end zone on fourth down.

STADIUM INFORMATION

Orchard Park is headquarters for NFL football in Western New York. Before a sellout crowd of 80,020, the Buffalo Bills dedicated their spanking new playing facility on August 17, 1973. While the visiting Redskins captured the inaugural game 37-21, even defeat could not dull the enthusiasm of fans who had long awaited completion of the project.

Built on a 113-acre tract approximately 30 minutes from downtown Buffalo, the stadium was constructed at a cost of $22 million, financed by the taxpayers of Erie County. From the ground-breaking on April 4, 1972, to the inaugural, actual construction time was slightly over 14 months.

To form the lower level of the stadium more than 370,000 feet of shale was removed—putting the field 50 feet below ground level. The outside of the stadium rises only 60 feet above the horizon. The Astro Turf field has an 18-inch crown to assure proper drainage.

Surrounding the stadium are parking facilities for 16,000 cars and 300 buses. Scattered throughout the concourses are 38 concession stands and 42 rest rooms.

Current capacity of the stadium is 80,290 which makes it the third largest in the NFL.

SIMPSON HEADS UP BILLS SILVER ANNIVERSARY TEAM

Running back O.J. Simpson was the only unanimous choice for the Buffalo Bills' Silver Anniversary all-time team, selected by a special committee to commemorate the team's 25th season of professional football this coming fall.

Simpson, the All-Pro running back who set the single season rushing record of 2,003 yards in 1973, was named on each of the 29 ballots cast. Four other players—guard Billy Shaw, defensive end Ron McDole, defensive tackle Tom Sestak and punter Paul Maguire—missed unanimous selection by only one vote.

The Bills' Silver Anniversary squad is heavy with heroes from Buffalo's AFL Championship teams of 1964 and 1965. Sestak, Shaw, McDole and Maguire are among 15 players from the 1964-65 clubs to make the all-time team. Simpson and three others represent the decade of the 1970's while five members of the current Buffalo squad comprise the legacy of the 1980's.

Joining the mercurial Simpson, who rushed for 10,183 yards and scored 70 touchdowns in his Bills' career, in the Silver Anniversary backfield are the bruising Cookie Gilchrist at fullback and Congressman Jack Kemp at quarterback.

Gilchrist was the first Buffalo player to gain 1,000 yards rushing (1,098 in 1962) and was the ground gaining leader of the 1964 AFL titlists with 981 yards on 230 carries. Gilchrist gained 3,056 yards and scored 35 TDs with Buffalo. While most of Kemp's passing records have since been surpassed by Joe Ferguson, the Western New York congressman was the catalyst of two championship teams and passed for 15,128 yards and 77 touchdowns in his career with the Bills.

As wide receivers, the selectors tapped the Bills' number one and number two all-time receiving leaders, Elbert Dubenion of Bluffton College and Bob Chandler of Southern California. Dubenion, whose skill earned him the nickname "Golden Wheels," caught 296 passes from 1960-68 for 5,309 yards and 35 TDs. Chandler caught 295 for 3,999 and 34 scores. The tight end is Ernie Warlick of North Carolina Central, who averaged 17.2 yards on 90 receptions in four seasons with the Bills.

Shaw, a five-time consensus choice All-AFL and one of three Bills' players chosen on the all-time AFL team, is joined at guard by Reggie McKenzie, sparkplug of the fabled "Electric Company" that "turned loose the Juice" in 1973. Joe Devlin of the present Bills and Stew Barber, a five-time all-AFL selection in the 1960's are the Silver Anniversary tackles. Syracuse is represented on the all-time team by center Al Bemiller, who appeared in 126 consecutive regularly-scheduled games from 1961-69.

Sestak was one of two defensive players the Bills landed on the all-time AFL team selected by the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1969. The other, safety George Saines, also claimed a spot on the Silver Anniversary defense.

From little McNeese State, Sestak was a tight end in college but never played that position for the Bills. He quickly became one of the AFL's most feared defensive linemen and was a first team All-League choice in 1964-65-66. Sestak's partner at defensive tackle is current nose tackle Fred Smerlas, who made his fourth consecutive trip to the Pro Bowl this past January and has won frequent mention on both All-Pro and All-Conference teams in his five Buffalo seasons.

At the defensive ends, the Silver Anniversary team features Ron McDole from the 1960's and Ben Williams, Buffalo's current standout and the team leader in quarterback sacks a year ago (with 10). First team All-AFL in 1965-66, McDole played eight years with Buffalo before being traded to the Washington Redskins. Williams, who has a career total of 48½ quarterback sacks, was elected to the Pro Bowl in 1983.

Mike Stratton, who played in more games than any defensive performer in Buffalo history, attracted a heavy vote in balloting for the three linebacker positions. The late John Tracey and Jim Haslett, a current standout, captured the other two spots.

Stratton, a 13th round draft choice out of Tennessee, made first team All-AFL from 1964-67 and was a second team pick in 1968-69. He finished with 17 career pass interceptions ranking him in a tie for eighth spot on the Bills' all-time list. Tracey died of cancer in 1978. In his Buffalo career he started 56 games with Stratton and Harry Jacobs as part of the Bills most famed linebacking triumvirate. A 29-year old free agent tight end who had been cut loose by both the Cardinals and Eagles, Tracey was converted to linebacker by Coach Lou Saban.

The final linebacking position went to Haslett, the National Football League "Defensive Rookie-of-the-Year" in 1979 following a spectacular inaugural season. From Little Indiana, Pa., University, Haslett missed eleven games last fall with back miseries but, in his five seasons, has made nearly 500 tackles.

All-time interceptions leader George "Butch" Byrd and Robert James, the Fisk College product who first attracted attention with his ferocious special teams play, are the committee's choice as Buffalo's all-time top cornerbacks.

Byrd picked off 40 passes from 1964-70 and racked up 666 yards in interception returns, both still Buffalo records. He also ranks number four on the lifetime list for punt returns with a 6.8 average and two touchdowns on 85 returns. A pre-season knee injury against the Rams on Aug. 23, 1975, prematurely robbed the Bills of the services of Robert James, who made the transition from small college free agent defensive end to one of the best man-on-man defenders in professional football. James was an All-NFL pick in 1983 and 1984 and played in three Pro Bowl games.

The top vote getter at safety was Saimes, who logged a career total of 22 interceptions in seven seasons and was a first team All-AFL choice four consecutive years. Saimes' teammate at safety is Steve Freeman, senior partner in the current Buffalo secondary. Named to The Sporting News All-NFL team in 1983, Freeman has played in 34 consecutive games, just six short of the team record, and ranks seventh on the all-time list in pass interceptions with 20.

Maguire, currently a broadcaster with ESPN, was the Buffalo punter for seven seasons after coming to the Bills from the San Diego Chargers. He punted a record 552 times and averaged 42.1 yards, still the best ever for a Buffalo punter. In only two Buffalo seasons, kicker Pete Gogolak accumulated the kind of statistics that made him a run-away pick as the Bills' all-time kicker. He topped both of the championship teams in scoring with 102 points in 1964 and 115 in 1965. He missed only one extra point (76-of-77) and converted 63.5% of his field goal attempts (47-of-74).
